Skim UK Code of conduct

- Ensure that you are covered by Public Liability Insurance for skimboarding
- Keep your skimboarding equipment in good condition.
- Have consideration for other water users including anglers.
- Always return to the beach before nightfall.
- Never mix skimboarding with alcohol or drugs.
- Be considerate of other beach users.
- When possible use a lifeguard patrolled beach. Obey the lifeguard's instructions and be prepared to assist them if required.
- Where possible skim in a recognised surfing area (e.g. in between the black and white checked flags).
- When taking a wave see that you are clear of other skimmers.
- Remember, if someone else is already running at the wave you must avoid them or stop your run.
- Be environmentally friendly. Always leave the beach and other areas as you would wish to find them.
